

Tell the Next Generation

God Calls Abram and Makes him a Promise

Scripture:

Genesis 12-13

What does this say about God and man?

- God communicates with man
- Faith pleases God (without faith, man cannot please God)
Abram believed God and obeyed Him
- God is sovereign (over all)
God chose Abram; God promised to give Abram the land of Canaan (God could give Canaan to Abram because it belonged to Him); God is over all
- Man is a sinner; he needs God and cannot save himself

QUESTIONS AND RESPONSES: Below are questions and responses to help you and your child interact with the scripture passage, and to solicit a personal response from both of you to the truths of the Bible story. Please allow the Holy Spirit to guide you to further questions and responses.

- * God could give Canaan to Abram because Canaan belonged to God. Does everything belong to God? Does God have the right to control everything?
- * God told Abram to leave his home and go far away. Do you think that was easy or hard to do? Abram trusted God. Can you trust God even when life is hard -- or scary -- or when it hurts?
- * Pray together about trusting God in a specific situation.